

Associate, Finance Operations
Vancouver, BC

QuadReal is a global real estate company owned by the British Columbia Investment Management Corporation (bcIMC), one of Canada's largest institutional investors with over $123 billion in assets. Based in Vancouver and established in June 2016 to manage bcIMC's real estate assets, QuadReal's managed assets total more than $18 billion and include more than 500 office, industrial, retail and residential properties in Canada and substantial real estate investments outside of Canada.

QuadReal focuses on maximizing returns for bcIMC's clients, providing exceptional service for our tenants and residents, and demonstrating industry-leading environmental, social and governance stewardship. We are continuing to build our platform in Canada and expanding into new markets throughout the US, Asia and Europe.

Taylor Ryan is partnering exclusively with QuadReal in their search for an Associate, Finance Operations.

In this position, the Associate Finance Operations reports directly to the Vice President of Investment. Primary responsibilities are to provide strategic insights through portfolio monitoring and analytics, and prepare regular and ad-hoc reports for the International Real Estate team, other QuadReal departments, and QuadReal executives. The Associate is also responsible for coordinating: client reporting, presentation, and data requirements; annual investment valuation processes; operational support for client foreign exchange hedging activities; and, optimizing investment monitoring processes and workflows.

The ideal candidate will have a CA, CFA or MBA and will possess at least 3-7 years of experience performing investment analysis. An extensive knowledge and proficiency in the areas of fund valuation, analysis and Real Estate investment is essential. Excellent technical and finance skills are key.

For more information about this exciting opportunity and to apply, please send your resume in word format quoting "Associate, Finance Operations" in the subject, to gemma@taylorryan.com

We thank all applicants in advance but only successful candidates may be contacted.

TAYLOR | RYAN Executive Search Partners